Availability of Information Regarding Registered Sex Offenders

NOTICE: The state justice department, sheriff’s departments, police departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 or more and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a data base of the locations of persons required to register pursuant to “Megan’s Law” or a similar statute. The data base may be updated on a regular basis and should be a source of information about the presence of these individuals in any neighborhood. Contact the state justice department to determine whether it also maintains a telephone service through which inquiries about individuals may be made. You may also contact your county sheriff, and local law enforcement offices.

Information about the location and nature of sex offenders may also be found online at the following resources:

<http://sexoffenders.orgon.gov> (Oregon database)

www.sexcriminals.com (general database with various resources)

www.nsopr.gov (national database)
